Peacebuilding in Guinea-Bissau

Conclusions and recommendations of the Peacebuilding Commission on the situation in Guinea-Bissau

1. On the basis of the recent visit to Bissau by the Chairperson of the Guinea-Bissau configuration of the Peacebuilding Commission and the meeting of the Commission convened in New York on 17 September 2008, the Commission has agreed on the conclusions and recommendations set out below.

Context

2. At the request of the Government of Guinea-Bissau, the Security Council, in December 2007, referred the country to the Peacebuilding Commission for its advice (see S/2007/744). Following a presentation by the Government of Guinea-Bissau on peacebuilding needs and priorities, the Commission invited the Government and its partners to develop an integrated peacebuilding strategy for the country. The Commission's Guinea-Bissau configuration contributed to the development of the Strategic Framework for Peacebuilding by organizing a series of informal thematic meetings and preparing a detailed mapping of resources and gaps for peacebuilding in Guinea-Bissau, as well as arranging a visit by a delegation of the Commission to the country in April 2008.

3. On 31 July 2008, the Commission informally adopted the Strategic Framework subject to a final review by the Government of Guinea-Bissau. Following the change of Government in Guinea-Bissau in early August 2008, the Chair of the Guinea-Bissau configuration undertook a fact-finding visit to the country from 10 to 12 September 2008 to gain a first-hand perspective on the political developments in the country and to explore options for the Commission's continued engagement, including the timing for the adoption of the Strategic Framework for Peacebuilding.

Conclusions

4. The political situation in Guinea-Bissau has stabilized following the creation of a new Government on 5 August 2008. Civil society organizations and international partners have expressed confidence in the new Government. The new Government has stressed its intention to finalize the preparations for the elections, to be held on 16 November 2008, and reaffirmed its commitment to a fair and transparent electoral process.

5. The Government has reiterated its resolve to move forward on all the necessary reforms in the areas of security sector reform, drug trafficking and public sector reform, as well as on discussions with the International Monetary Fund (IMF). The Government also reaffirmed its desire for continued engagement with the Commission and formal adoption of the Strategic Framework for Peacebuilding as a matter of priority. Following the visit of the Chair of the Guinea-Bissau configuration and her report to the Guinea-Bissau configuration, the Commission agreed to proceed with the formal adoption of the Strategic Framework for Peacebuilding and to continue technical consultations on its monitoring and review mechanism with a view to its expeditious adoption.
