A. Introduction

1. The present report of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1533 (2004) concerning the Democratic Republic of the Congo covers the period from 1 January to 31 December 2012.

2. In 2012, the Bureau of the Committee consisted of Agshin Mehdiyev (Azerbaijan) as Chair, with the delegations of Morocco and Pakistan serving as Vice-Chairs.

B. Background

3. By paragraph 20 of its resolution 1493 (2003), the Security Council imposed an arms embargo on all foreign and Congolese armed groups operating in the territory of North and South Kivu and Ituri. In paragraph 19 of the resolution, the Council requested the Secretary-General to report to the Council regularly on the position of the movements and armed groups and on information concerning arms supply and the presence of foreign military, especially by monitoring the use of landing strips in North and South Kivu and Ituri.

4. By its resolution 1533 (2004), the Security Council established the Committee to undertake, inter alia, the following tasks: (a) to seek from States information regarding actions taken by them to implement the arms embargo; (b) to examine and take action on alleged violations of the arms embargo; (c) to report regularly to the Council, in particular on ways to strengthen the effectiveness of the arms embargo; (d) to consider a list of those found to have violated the measures imposed by the Council in its resolution 1493 (2003) with a view to submitting recommendations to the Council for possible future measures; and (e) to receive notifications in advance from States made under paragraph 21 of resolution 1493 (2003) and to decide, if need be, upon any action to be taken.

5. By paragraph 10 of its resolution 1533 (2004), the Security Council requested the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Committee, to establish a group of experts to monitor the arms embargo. The Group of Experts was re-established or extended for 13 successive mandates pursuant to resolutions 1552 (2004), 1596 (2005), 1616 (2005), 1654 (2006), 1698 (2006), 1771 (2007), 1799 (2008), 1807 (2008), 1857 (2008), 1896 (2009), 1952 (2010), 2021 (2011) and 2078 (2012).

6. By its resolution 1596 (2005), the Security Council extended the arms embargo to any recipient in the territory of the Democratic Republic of the Congo except the national army and police, among others, under the conditions set out in the resolution. The Council also imposed travel restrictions and an assets freeze on persons and entities acting in violation of the arms embargo. By the same resolution, the Council decided to provide the Group of Experts with a fifth finance expert so that it could fulfil the broader mandate entrusted to it in connection with the measures set out in paragraphs 6, 10, 13 and 15 of the resolution.

7. By its resolution 1616 (2005), the Security Council renewed the arms embargo, travel restrictions and assets freeze until 31 July 2006. By its resolution 1649 (2005), the Council extended the scope of the travel restrictions and assets freeze to political and military leaders of foreign armed groups operating in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Congolese militias receiving support from abroad that impede the participation of their combatants in disarmament, demobilization and reintegration processes. The Council decided that those measures should take effect on 15 January 2006, unless the Secretary-General informed the Council that the process of disarmament of those foreign armed groups and Congolese militias operating in the Democratic Republic of the Congo was being completed.

8. By its resolution 1698 (2006), the Security Council renewed until 31 July 2007 the arms embargo, as well as the travel and financial restrictions on individuals designated by the Committee in accordance with the criteria set out in its resolutions 1596 (2005) and 1649 (2005). Also in its resolution 1698 (2006), the Council extended the travel and financial measures to political and military leaders recruiting or using children in armed conflict and to individuals committing serious violations of international law involving the targeting of children in situations of armed conflict. In addition to requesting the Group of Experts to carry out the tasks outlined in resolutions 1533 (2004), 1596 (2005) and 1649 (2005), the Council requested the Group to recommend feasible and effective measures the Council might impose to prevent the illegal exploitation of natural resources financing armed groups.

9. By its resolution 1771 (2007), the Security Council decided to renew the measures on arms imposed under resolutions 1493 (2003) and 1596 (2005) until 15 February 2008. In connection with the arms embargo, the Council decided to renew the exemptions for units of the army and police of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, provided that the conditions specified in paragraph 2 of the resolution were met. In addition, in paragraph 3 of its resolution 1771 (2007), the Council decided to authorize an exemption for technical training and assistance agreed to by the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and intended solely to support units of the national army and police that were in the process of integration in the provinces of North and South Kivu and in the Ituri district.

10. By paragraph 4 of its resolution 1771 (2007), the Security Council decided that the conditions specified in paragraph 4 of resolution 1596 (2005), as now applied to the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, should apply to supplies of arms and related materiel, as well as technical training and assistance consistent with the exemptions set out in paragraphs 2 and 3 of resolution 1771 (2007), and noted in that regard that States had an obligation to notify the Committee in advance of such supplies. The Council also decided to renew the measures on transport and travel and finance in accordance with resolutions 1596 (2005), 1649 (2005) and 1698 (2006), and to review, by no later than 15 February 2008, the measures concerning the arms embargo and the transport, travel and financial bans, in the light of the consolidation of the security situation and the processes of integration of armed forces and reform of the national police in the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

By paragraph 2 of its resolution 1807 (2008), the Security Council decided that the measures on arms and technical training no longer applied to the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo. By paragraph 1 of the same resolution, the Council decided that, for a period ending on 31 December 2008, all States shall take the necessary measures to prevent the direct or indirect supply, sale or transfer, from their territories or by their nationals, or using their flag vessels or aircraft, of arms and any related materiel, and the provision of any assistance, advice or training related to military activities, including financing and financial assistance, to all non-governmental entities and individuals operating in the territory of the Democratic Republic of the Congo. By paragraph 5 of the resolution, the Council reiterated the obligation of supplier States to notify the Committee of all shipments of arms and related materiel, as well as the provision of technical training and assistance to the Democratic Republic of the Congo. By paragraph 13 (e), the Council extended the travel and financial measures to individuals operating in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and committing serious violations of international law involving the targeting of children or women in situations of armed conflict, including killing and maiming, sexual violence, abduction and forced displacement.

By paragraphs 4 (f) and (g) of the same resolution, the Council decided that the assets freeze and travel ban would also apply to individuals obstructing the access to or distribution of humanitarian assistance in the eastern part of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, as well as individuals or entities supporting the illegal armed groups in that part of the country through the illicit trade in natural resources. By paragraphs 6 (a) and (b) of the same resolution, the Council decided to expand the mandate of the Committee to include the following tasks: (a) to review regularly the list of individuals and entities subject to the travel ban and assets freeze and adopted by the Committee on 1 November 2005; and (b) to promulgate guidelines in order to facilitate the implementation of the measures imposed by the resolution and keep them under active review as may be necessary.

By paragraph 9 of its resolution 1952 (2010), the Security Council decided that the Committee, in determining whether to designate an individual or entity supporting the illegal armed groups in the eastern part of the Democratic Republic of the Congo through the illicit trade in natural resources, should consider, among other things, whether the individual or entity has exercised due diligence consistent with the steps set out in the resolution.
