Sixty-ninth yearLetter dated 19 May 2014 from the Permanent Representative of Switzerland to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

Please find enclosed a copy of a letter I sent today to all United Nations Member States and Observers together with the Governments of Albania, Andorra, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Botswana, Bulgaria, Cape Verde, Chile, the Cook Islands, Costa Rica, Côte d'Ivoire, Croatia, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Ghana, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Latvia, Libya, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Maldives, Malta, the Marshall Islands, Monaco, Montenegro, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Panama, Paraguay, Poland, Portugal, the Republic of Korea, the Republic of Moldova, Romania, San Marino, Samoa, Seychelles, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Tunisia, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and Uruguay* (see annex I).

The said letter calls upon all United Nations Member States to co-sponsor the French draft Security Council resolution referring the situation in the Syrian Arab Republic since March 2011 to the International Criminal Court.

Since we believe that this letter is of interest to all States Members of the United Nations, we would like to request its circulation as a document of the General Assembly, under agenda item 35, and of the Security Council, in connection with the item "The situation in the Middle East".

* Clarification on the part of Switzerland, on the basis of clarification received from the Mission of Uruguay: While Uruguay strongly supports a referral, it will be unable to co-sponsor the draft resolution and therefore prefers not to associate itself with the call for co-sponsorship.

Annex I

To all United Nations Member States and Observers: Call for co-sponsorship of the French draft Security Council resolution (attached) referring the situation in the Syrian Arab Republic to the International Criminal Court

I am writing to you on behalf of the following 58 States: Albania, Andorra, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Botswana, Bulgaria, Cape Verde, Chile, Cook Islands, Costa Rica, Côte d'Ivoire, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Ghana, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Latvia, Libya, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Maldives, Malta, Marshall Islands, Monaco, Montenegro, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Panama, Paraguay, Poland, Portugal, Republic of Korea, Republic of Moldova, Romania, San Marino, Samoa, Seychelles, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Tunisia, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Uruguay,* and my own country, Switzerland.

You may recall that, on 14 January 2013, the same group of 58 States sent a letter to the President of the Security Council (S/2013/19) expressing our firm view that the Council must ensure accountability for the crimes committed in the Syrian Arab Republic. We asked that the Security Council act “by referring the situation in the Syrian Arab Republic as of March 2011 to the International Criminal Court without exceptions and irrespective of the alleged perpetrators”.

Since then, the conflict has only grown in intensity and scope. More than 150,000 are estimated to have died, many of them civilians. Over 2.7 million have fled the country as refugees, and more than 6.5 million are internally displaced. Abuses and violations of international humanitarian law and human rights law continue on a daily basis and in a pervasive climate of impunity; many have been documented. The United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, Navi Pillay, has repeatedly called for a referral, and so has the Independent Commission of Inquiry mandated by the Human Rights Council.

Over one year after the collective call of the 58 States and on the basis of an initiative by France, Council members will this Thursday take action on a draft resolution (see annex II) that would refer the situation in the Syrian Arab Republic to the International Criminal Court. France has indicated that it will open the resolution for co-sponsorship to the wider United Nations membership. To co-sponsor the resolution, delegations need to submit a rule 37 request to the Security Council Affairs Division. A copy of the signed letter (sample attached; see annex III) can be sent to dpa-scb3@un.org or faxed to 1-917-367-0406.

* Clarification on the part of Switzerland, on the basis of clarification received from the Mission of Uruguay: While Uruguay strongly supports a referral, it will be unable to co-sponsor the draft resolution and therefore prefers not to associate itself with the call for co-sponsorship.

While several members of the group would prefer a stronger language regarding the terms of the referral and the support of the Organization, we all share the view that the initiative by France represents the best opportunity to bring at last, three years into the Syrian civil war, the promise of accountability to its war-ravaged people and at the same time to help to deter further atrocities. Each side of the conflict would be held accountable. According to the draft resolution, the Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court would be empowered to investigate crimes committed by the Syrian authorities and pro-government militias, as well as by non-State armed groups, all committed in the course of the ongoing conflict in the Syrian Arab Republic since March 2011.

Against this background, the 58 States strongly support the French initiative. We call upon the Security Council to adopt the draft resolution and we encourage United Nations Member States, States parties to the Rome Statute or not, to send a strong message of political support by co-sponsoring the resolution. The United Nations — the Security Council and the wider membership alike — should be united in acting for justice and accountability for the victims of the conflict in Syria.

I thank you in advance for your attention and your expression of support.

Recalling the statements made by the Secretary-General and the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights that crimes against humanity and war crimes are likely to have been committed in the Syrian Arab Republic,

Noting the repeated encouragement by the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights for the Security Council to refer the situation to the International Criminal Court,

8. Recognizes that none of the expenses incurred in connection with the referral, including expenses related to investigations or prosecutions in connection with that referral, shall be borne by the United Nations and that such costs shall be borne by the parties to the Rome Statute and those States that wish to contribute voluntarily and encourages States to make such contributions, noting the need for funding of expenses related to investigations or prosecutions of the International Criminal Court, including in connection with situations referred to the Court by the Security Council, as stated in General Assembly resolution 67/295;

9. Invites the Prosecutor to address the Council within two months of the date of adoption of this resolution and every six months thereafter on actions taken pursuant to this resolution and requests the Secretary-General to circulate the report of the Prosecutor as a document of the Council, in advance of such briefings;
