Resolution 2392 (2017)

Adopted by the Security Council at its 8135th meeting, on 14 December 2017

The Security Council,

Determining that the situation in South Sudan continues to constitute a threat to international peace and security,

Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

1. Decides to extend the mandate of the United Nations Mission in the Republic of South Sudan (UNMISS), as set out in resolution 2327 (2016), until 15 March 2018, and authorizes UNMISS to use all necessary means to carry out its tasks;

2. Decides to remain actively seized of the matter.
