reinstatement of the legitimate government of President Ahmed Tejan Kabbah, the return of peace and security and the resolution of the issues of refugees and displaced persons.

9. Therefore, the Ministers:

(i) Reaffirmed the decision made in Harare by the Heads of State and Government at the thirty-third summit meeting of OAU on the situation in Sierra Leone;

(ii) Reaffirmed the support of ECOWAS for the Abidjan peace accord signed on 30 November 1996;

(iii) Stressed that no country should grant recognition to the regime that emerged following the coup d'état of 25 May 1997, and to work towards the reinstatement of the legitimate government by a combination of three measures, namely, dialogue, imposition of sanctions and enforcement of an embargo and the use of force.

10. In order to increase the effectiveness of the above measures, the Ministers for Foreign Affairs recommended prior consultations among member States at the highest level.

11. The Ministers for Foreign Affairs deplored the bloodletting and other human losses that occurred during the coup d'état of 25 May 1997. They warned the illegal regime against all acts of atrocities against Sierra Leonean citizens, foreign nationals living in Sierra Leone and personnel of the Economic Community of West African States Monitoring Group (ECOMOG).

12. In order to ensure the implementation of decisions resulting from the recommendations of their meeting, they established a committee made up of Nigeria, Guinea, Côte d'Ivoire and Ghana, to be joined by the representatives of the OAU and ECOWAS secretariats.

13. The session submitted its report to the President of the host country and directed the Committee to convey to the Chairman of ECOWAS the results of their deliberations. The Committee also was entrusted with the task of monitoring developments in Sierra Leone and the implementation of the measures adopted, with a view to achieving the above-mentioned objectives. Within two weeks of this date the Committee shall return to the Chairman of ECOWAS and brief him on the outcome of their efforts.

14. The Ministers for Foreign Affairs called on the international community to support the ECOWAS initiative on Sierra Leone.

15. The meeting appealed to the international community to give emergency aid and assistance to the Republic of Guinea and other countries of the subregion affected by the problem of refugees.

16. The Ministers for Foreign Affairs expressed deep gratitude to His Excellency General Lansana Conte, President of the Republic of Guinea, and to the Government and people of Guinea for the hospitality extended to them, and for the facilities put at their disposal.
