Letter dated 30 April 2013 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council

I have the honour to refer to Security Council resolution 2095 (2013) concerning Libya, adopted on 14 March 2013, by which the Council decided to extend the mandate of the Panel of Experts, established by paragraph 24 of resolution 1973 (2011) and extended by resolution 2040 (2012), for a period of 13 months.

Accordingly, I wish to inform you that, in addition to the four experts whom I have already appointed (see S/2013/212) and following consultations with the Committee, I have appointed the following expert to serve on the Panel of Experts:

– Mr. Brian Katulis, United States of America (regional expert)

The Panel of Experts now has five members, its maximum authorized complement.

I should be grateful if you would bring this information to the attention of the members of the Security Council.
