Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1970 \(2011\) concerning Libya

Report of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1970 (2011) concerning Libya

I. Introduction

1. The present report of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1970 (2011) concerning Libya covers the period from 1 January to 31 December 2018.

2. The Bureau of the Committee consisted of Olof Skoog (Sweden) as Chair and the representative of the Netherlands as Vice-Chair.

II. Background

3. By its resolution 1970 (2011), the Security Council established the Committee and imposed a two-way arms embargo on Libya, as well as a travel ban and an asset freeze on designated individuals and entities, and outlined exemptions to those measures. The Committee is tasked with, among other things, overseeing the implementation of the sanctions measures. By its resolution 1973 (2011), the Council established a panel of experts to assist the Committee in carrying out its mandate and imposed additional measures relating to Libya, including the authorization to protect civilians, the establishment of a no-fly zone and a ban on flights of Libyan aircraft, in addition to authorizing inspections, including on the high seas, in relation to the arms embargo. In both resolutions, the Council outlined criteria for designation under the travel ban and asset freeze measures and listed specific individuals and/or entities as subject to those measures. Subsequently, in its resolutions 2009 (2011), 2016 (2011), 2040 (2012) and 2095 (2013), the Council terminated or eased some of the measures and introduced further exemptions thereto, delisted two entities and terminated the authorization for inspections, including on the high seas.

4. By its resolution 2146 (2014), the Security Council decided to impose measures, such as prohibitions on loading, transporting or discharging crude oil, entering ports, bunkering services or other servicing, and financial transactions, in relation to designated vessels attempting to export crude oil illicitly from Libya. Exemptions to the measures were also included. Subsequently, in its resolution 2362 (2017) the Council decided to extend the measures making them applicable to vessels loading, transporting or discharging petroleum, including crude oil and refined petroleum products, illicitly exported or attempted to be exported from Libya. By its resolution 2174 (2014), the Council reinforced the arms embargo and expanded the designation criteria, which it further elaborated in its resolutions 2213 (2015), 2362 (2017) and 2441 (2018).

5. Provisions for Member States to inspect, in their territory, cargo to and from Libya and designated vessels on the high seas were included in the sanctions regime in the context of the enforcement of the arms embargo and of the measures aimed at preventing the illicit export of petroleum from Libya. By its resolution 2292 (2016), the Council also authorized for 12 months inspections on the high seas off the coast of Libya of vessels believed to be carrying arms or related materiel to or from Libya in violation of the arms embargo, provided that good-faith efforts were made to first obtain the consent of a vessel's flag State. Such authorization was renewed in resolutions 2357 (2017) and 2420 (2018) for additional, successive periods of 12 months. By its resolution 2441 (2018), the Security Council extended for a further

15 months the authorizations and measures set out in resolution 2146 \(2014\) and previously extended in resolution 2362 \(2017\).

6. The membership of the Panel of Experts on Libya initially consisted of eight experts, was then reduced to five experts under resolution 2040 \(2012\) and then again was increased to six experts under resolution 2146 \(2014\). The Panel's mandate was most recently renewed in resolution 2441 \(2018\).

7. Further background information on the Libya sanctions regime can be found in the previous annual reports of the Committee.

III. Summary of the activities of the Committee

14. On 1 and 2 November, the Chair of the Committee led a Committee visit to Libya, the first such visit since the inception in 2011 of the sanctions regime. While the approved terms of reference had indicated Tripoli and Beida as the two destinations to be visited, the Committee only visited Tripoli in November, owing to the closure of Beida Airport. The Chair intends to visit all areas agreed in the terms of reference as soon as possible subject to logistical and security arrangements.

15. The Committee adopted two implementation assistance notices to provide guidance to Member States on the application of the provisions of the resolutions regarding the assets freeze in relation to the payment of management fees on frozen assets and on the payment of interest and other earnings on frozen assets, on 4 December and 17 December, respectively.
