The Security Council,

Regarding the murder of the Prime Minister of the Republic of the Congo, Patrice Lumumba, and of the outstanding statesmen of the Republic Okito and Mpolo as an international crime incompatible with the United Nations Charter and as a flagrant violation of the Declaration on the grant of independence to colonial countries and peoples adopted by the United Nations General Assembly at its fifteenth session,

Decisively condemns the actions of Belgium which led to this crime;

Deems it essential that the sanctions provided under Article 41 of the United Nations Charter should be applied to Belgium as to an aggressor which by its actions is creating a threat to international peace, and calls on the States Members of the United Nations for the immediate application of these sanctions;

Enjoins the command of the troops that are in the Congo pursuant to the decision of the Security Council immediately to arrest Tshombe and Mobutu in order to deliver them for trial, to disarm all the military units and gendarmerie forces under their control, and to ensure the immediate disarming and removal from the Congo of all Belgian troops and all Belgian personnel;

Directs that the "United Nations operation" in the Congo shall be discontinued within one month and all foreign troops withdrawn from there so as to enable the Congolese people to decide its own internal affairs;

Deems it essential to dismiss D. Hammarskjold from the post of Secretary-General of the United Nations as a participant in and organizer of the violence committed against the leading statesmen of the Republic of the Congo.
