

Fact Sheet on the 1591 Sudan Sanctions Committee (2005)

Chair (as of October 2024) Ambassador Joonkook Hwang (Republic of Korea)

Mandate The Committee is mandated to:

- oversee the implementation of the sanctions measures;
- consider and decide upon requests for exemptions from the sanctions measures;
- designate individuals and entities who meet the listing criteria as contained in the relevant resolution;
- assess member states' reports submitted pursuant to relevant resolutions;
- assess the reports submitted by the Panel of Experts (PoE) assisting the committee;
- through the committee chair, report every 90 days to the Security Council on its work;
- establish and update its guidelines;
- conduct outreach activities, including with member states, particularly states in the region.

Types of Sanctions Arms embargo and targeted sanctions (assets freeze and travel ban).

Resolution 2750 of 11 September 2024 renewed the sanctions regime until 12 September 2025.

Monitoring Mechanism/
Panel of Experts The Committee is supported by a Panel of Experts (PoE), which is composed of five experts:

- Laura Victoria Bernal Moncada, armed groups (Colombia)
- Lourraine Eayrs, finance (South Africa)
- Andrei Kolmakov, regional issues (Russia)
- Amber Larsen, international humanitarian law (Sweden)
- Sarra Majdoub, arms (Tunisia)

The PoE's mandate was last renewed by resolution 2725 of 8 March 2024 until 12 March 2025.

Committee Website Sudan Sanctions Committee

UN Documents

Security Council Resolutions

S/RES/2750 (11 September 2024) renewed the 1591 Sudan sanctions regime – including targeted sanctions (assets freezes and travel bans) and an arms embargo – until 12 September 2025.

S/RES/2725 (8 March 2024) extended the mandate of the Panel of Experts assisting the 1591 Sudan Sanctions Committee until 12 March 2025.

S/RES/1591 (29 March 2005) established a committee and panel of experts and additional targeting measures.

Sanctions Committee Documents

S/2024/65 (15 January 2024) was the final report of the Panel of Experts.