

Resolution XXXX (2007)

The Security Council,

Recalling all its previous relevant resolutions, in particular resolutions 242 (1967), 338 (1973), 1397 (2002), and 1515 (2003), as well as the Quartet Performance-based Roadmap to a Permanent Two-State Solution to the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict issued on 30 April 2003 (S/2203/529)

Affirming its vision of a region where two States, Israel and Palestine, living side by side in peace within secure and recognized borders,

Welcoming the diplomatic efforts at the recent Annapolis Conference to realize this vision as a concrete step towards a comprehensive Middle East peace,

1. Endorses the program of action for negotiations and implementation of outstanding obligations pursuant to the Roadmap agreed upon by the Israeli and Palestinian leadership at Annapolis, Maryland on November 27, 2007;
2. Welcomes continuing Quartet support for efforts to achieve a permanent two-state solution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in the Middle East;
3. Calls on all states to lend their diplomatic and political support to Israeli-Palestinian efforts to implement their agreed program of action, including by encouraging and recognizing progress and preventing any support for acts of violence or terrorism intended to disrupt their efforts;
4. Also calls on those states and international organizations in a position to do so to assist in the development of the Palestinian economy, including at the upcoming Donors' Conference in Paris, to maximize the resources available to the Palestinian Authority, and to contribute to the Palestinian institution-building program in preparation for statehood;
5. Decides to remain seized of the matter.
