Letter dated 12 July 2006 addressed to the President of the Security Council by the Secretary-General

I have the honour to transmit to you the communiqué issued at the conclusion of the high-level meeting that I convened at Yamoussoukro on 5 July 2006 (see annex). This meeting on the situation in Côte d'Ivoire and the implementation of the road map for peace in that country followed consultations conducted with various African Heads of State in the margins of the African Union summit at Banjul on 1 and 2 July 2006.

I should be grateful if you would bring this letter and its annex to the attention of the members of the Security Council.

(Signed) Kofi A. Annan

Yamoussoukro High-level Meeting on Côte d'Ivoire convened by the United Nations Secretary-General

A meeting was convened by the United Nations Secretary-General in Yamoussoukro on 5 July to discuss the implementation of the peace process in Côte d'Ivoire. Attending the meeting were:

- H.E. Olusegun Obasanjo, President of Nigeria
- H.E. Thabo Mbeki, President of South Africa
- H.E. Rodolphe Adada, Minister for Foreign Affairs of Congo, representing the President of the African Union, H.E.M. Sassou Nguesso, President of Congo
- The Ministers for Foreign Affairs of Ghana and Burkina Faso, representing Presidents John Kufuor and Blaise Compaore, respectively
- The Representatives of Presidents Mamadou Tandja of Niger (President of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS)) and Amadou Toumani Touré of Mali
- Mr. Jean-Marie Guéhenno, Under-Secretary-General, Department of Peacekeeping Operations of the United Nations
- Mr. Ahmedou Ould-Abdallah, Special Representative of the Secretary-General for West Africa
- The co-Chairs of the International Working Group
- The Day-to-Day Mediation Group members, including the representatives of the African Union and ECOWAS, the Special Envoy of the African Union Mediator, and the High Representative for the elections in Côte d'Ivoire.

On the Ivorian side the following were in attendance:

- President Laurent Gbagbo
- Prime Minister Charles Konan Banny
- Mr. Guillaume Soro, Secretary General of the Forces Nouvelles
- Mr. Alassane Outtara, President of the Rassemblement des Républicains
- Mr. Djédjé Mady, Secretary-General of the Parti Démocratique de Côte d'Ivoire, representing President Bedie.

1. The participants reaffirmed their commitment to the Ivorian peace process and the need to continue to make all efforts to implement Security Council resolution 1633 (2005). They also reaffirmed the key commitments made at Yamoussoukro on 28 February 2006, in particular:

- (i) that the media, and particularly the written press, is called upon to embrace the peace process and to refrain from printing articles that could jeopardize that process;
- (ii) that political leaders should prevail on journalists who are close to them to join the peace process; and
- (iii) that political leaders should create a conducive environment for the conduct of political activities, in keeping with the values of brotherhood and democracy.

2. Recognizing the improved political environment, and recognizing that important first steps had already been made towards a comprehensive disarmament, demobilization and reintegration (DDR) and identification process, the Ivorian parties recommitted themselves to do everything possible to accelerate the DDR process as well as the identification and electoral processes. In this context, the dismantling of militias, the redeployment of state administration, the nationwide launch of the audiences foraines, and the deployment of the Independent Electoral Commission regional and local commissions are of the utmost urgency.

3. The participants stressed the important role that the United Nations Operation in Côte d'Ivoire (UNOCI), the impartial forces, the High Representative for the elections in Côte d'Ivoire as well as other United Nations agencies have to play to support the implementation, transparency and credibility of the process. In this context, they affirmed that freedom of movement and the involvement of impartial forces in the military dialogue are crucial to the credibility and transparency of the process. The impartial forces, as mandated under Chapter VII of the United Nations Charter, should be granted access to all aspects of the DDR process, and in particular the pre-cantonment sites, as it is their mandatory duty to carry out the verification and listing of soldiers and weaponry. To this end, the participants decided to create a Monitoring Committee for DDR which would include, among others, representatives of the Impartial Forces, the Chiefs of Staff of the Forces armées nationales de Côte d'Ivoire and the Forces armées des forces nouvelles and the Prime Minister's office.

4. The participants strongly warned that those inciting violence and hatred would be liable for the imposition of targeted sanctions by the Security Council. The participants also urged all those concerned to fully adhere to the new spirit of dialogue and cooperation enshrined in the Yamoussoukro declaration of 28 February 2006, as well as to the spirit of Security Council resolution 1633. The participants decided that a compulsory code of conduct should be established for members of the media that explicitly forbids inflammatory, extremist, and threatening messages.

5. The participants urged the political actors in Côte d'Ivoire to develop confidence and dialogue among themselves and to foster unity and national reconciliation beyond the elections. The participants further urged political actors to refrain from carrying out any actions or making any statements that impede the Government from working in a climate that allows him to implement the road map. The parties reaffirmed that the road map, as well as earlier agreements signed by the main Ivorian political actors including Pretoria, must be implemented as such without delay and without reopening or re-interpreting them.

6. The participants welcomed the Secretary-General's intention to call a meeting in mid-September in the margins of the General Assembly to take stock of the situation and to make any further determinations as may be needed.

7. The Ivorian parties agreed to take action on the decisions herewith attached.
